

NOTROOPS, SAYS THE MAYOR.

DEVER CAN TAKE CARE OF RIOTS AND CLUBS ARE TRUMPS.

This Suburban Approach of a Request for a "Ride Home for the Thirteenth-Soldiers" "Don't Have to Shoot in This City," Says Mayor. Mayor Van Wyck, who has been in the city since the morning of the riot, says that he has no objection to the militia being used in case of a riot, but that he does not want them to be used in case of a riot.

"You cannot tell them to go to the militia," said Mayor Van Wyck. "The militia will not be called out in case of a riot, but they will be called out in case of a riot."

"On, yes we can," said the Mayor. "The militia will not be called out in case of a riot, but they will be called out in case of a riot."

"There have been strikes in which the militia were used," said Mayor Van Wyck. "The militia will not be called out in case of a riot, but they will be called out in case of a riot."

"Not since I have been Mayor of New York," said Mayor Van Wyck. "The militia will not be called out in case of a riot, but they will be called out in case of a riot."

"On dress parade, eh?" said the Mayor. "The militia will not be called out in case of a riot, but they will be called out in case of a riot."

"Yes, and he was made to feel the effect of the very foolish remark," continued Gen. Butt.

"In Buffalo they had 7,000 police, but they got tired and the troops were needed," said Gen. Butt.

"We have a police force that can handle anything," said the Mayor. "The militia will not be called out in case of a riot, but they will be called out in case of a riot."

"That's the way to handle all strikes," said the Mayor. "The militia will not be called out in case of a riot, but they will be called out in case of a riot."

"The police handled that strike at the beginning," said Gen. Butt.

"That's the way to handle all strikes," said the Mayor. "The militia will not be called out in case of a riot, but they will be called out in case of a riot."

"The militia will not be called out in case of a riot, but they will be called out in case of a riot," said Gen. Butt.

"The militia will not be called out in case of a riot, but they will be called out in case of a riot," said Gen. Butt.

"The militia will not be called out in case of a riot, but they will be called out in case of a riot," said Gen. Butt.

"The militia will not be called out in case of a riot, but they will be called out in case of a riot," said Gen. Butt.

"The militia will not be called out in case of a riot, but they will be called out in case of a riot," said Gen. Butt.

"The militia will not be called out in case of a riot, but they will be called out in case of a riot," said Gen. Butt.

"The militia will not be called out in case of a riot, but they will be called out in case of a riot," said Gen. Butt.

"The militia will not be called out in case of a riot, but they will be called out in case of a riot," said Gen. Butt.

"The militia will not be called out in case of a riot, but they will be called out in case of a riot," said Gen. Butt.

"The militia will not be called out in case of a riot, but they will be called out in case of a riot," said Gen. Butt.

"The militia will not be called out in case of a riot, but they will be called out in case of a riot," said Gen. Butt.

"The militia will not be called out in case of a riot, but they will be called out in case of a riot," said Gen. Butt.

"The militia will not be called out in case of a riot, but they will be called out in case of a riot," said Gen. Butt.

"The militia will not be called out in case of a riot, but they will be called out in case of a riot," said Gen. Butt.

"The militia will not be called out in case of a riot, but they will be called out in case of a riot," said Gen. Butt.

"The militia will not be called out in case of a riot, but they will be called out in case of a riot," said Gen. Butt.

"The militia will not be called out in case of a riot, but they will be called out in case of a riot," said Gen. Butt.

W. B. ATTERBURY, DEMOCRAT.

So the Primary Records Catalogue the President of the Kings Republicans.

The Republican warriors in Kings county will be amazed when they learn that the Hon. Walter B. Atterbury, President of the Republican County Committee, and one of the most active politicians on their side of the fence in Brooklyn, is enrolled on the primary records as a Democrat.

Mr. Atterbury lives at 351 Jefferson avenue, in the Fourteenth election district of the Twenty-third ward, of which he is the Republican leader. The City Record supplies him with a card of the enrollment for this ward, and Mr. Atterbury is set down in this fashion:

"Atterbury, Walter B., 351 Jefferson avenue, Democrat."

On the line above him Edmund K. Alder of 351 Huxford street, Democrat, and John B. Alder of 351 Jefferson avenue, whose politics is not given. Mr. Atterbury's next door neighbor, T. Merrill Austin of 353 Jefferson avenue, is put down as a Republican.

Mr. Atterbury wasn't in when a SUN reporter called to him to-day to see if he would be in the favor of Mr. Alder's bid for the nomination of a village President and Treasurer. At the caucus held on Tuesday last, Mr. Alder was elected for the village of the Twenty-third ward, and Mr. Atterbury was elected for the village of the Twenty-third ward.

Mr. Atterbury was elected for the village of the Twenty-third ward, and Mr. Alder was elected for the village of the Twenty-third ward.

Mr. Atterbury was elected for the village of the Twenty-third ward, and Mr. Alder was elected for the village of the Twenty-third ward.

Mr. Atterbury was elected for the village of the Twenty-third ward, and Mr. Alder was elected for the village of the Twenty-third ward.

Mr. Atterbury was elected for the village of the Twenty-third ward, and Mr. Alder was elected for the village of the Twenty-third ward.

Mr. Atterbury was elected for the village of the Twenty-third ward, and Mr. Alder was elected for the village of the Twenty-third ward.

Mr. Atterbury was elected for the village of the Twenty-third ward, and Mr. Alder was elected for the village of the Twenty-third ward.

Mr. Atterbury was elected for the village of the Twenty-third ward, and Mr. Alder was elected for the village of the Twenty-third ward.

Mr. Atterbury was elected for the village of the Twenty-third ward, and Mr. Alder was elected for the village of the Twenty-third ward.

Mr. Atterbury was elected for the village of the Twenty-third ward, and Mr. Alder was elected for the village of the Twenty-third ward.

Mr. Atterbury was elected for the village of the Twenty-third ward, and Mr. Alder was elected for the village of the Twenty-third ward.

Mr. Atterbury was elected for the village of the Twenty-third ward, and Mr. Alder was elected for the village of the Twenty-third ward.

Mr. Atterbury was elected for the village of the Twenty-third ward, and Mr. Alder was elected for the village of the Twenty-third ward.

Mr. Atterbury was elected for the village of the Twenty-third ward, and Mr. Alder was elected for the village of the Twenty-third ward.

Mr. Atterbury was elected for the village of the Twenty-third ward, and Mr. Alder was elected for the village of the Twenty-third ward.

Mr. Atterbury was elected for the village of the Twenty-third ward, and Mr. Alder was elected for the village of the Twenty-third ward.

Mr. Atterbury was elected for the village of the Twenty-third ward, and Mr. Alder was elected for the village of the Twenty-third ward.

Mr. Atterbury was elected for the village of the Twenty-third ward, and Mr. Alder was elected for the village of the Twenty-third ward.

Mr. Atterbury was elected for the village of the Twenty-third ward, and Mr. Alder was elected for the village of the Twenty-third ward.

Mr. Atterbury was elected for the village of the Twenty-third ward, and Mr. Alder was elected for the village of the Twenty-third ward.

Mr. Atterbury was elected for the village of the Twenty-third ward, and Mr. Alder was elected for the village of the Twenty-third ward.

Mr. Atterbury was elected for the village of the Twenty-third ward, and Mr. Alder was elected for the village of the Twenty-third ward.

Mr. Atterbury was elected for the village of the Twenty-third ward, and Mr. Alder was elected for the village of the Twenty-third ward.

Mr. Atterbury was elected for the village of the Twenty-third ward, and Mr. Alder was elected for the village of the Twenty-third ward.

Mr. Atterbury was elected for the village of the Twenty-third ward, and Mr. Alder was elected for the village of the Twenty-third ward.

MOLINEUX MOTION IS UP.

IT GIVES THE RECORDED ANOTHER CHANCE TO MOORE MR. WEEKS.

Mr. Goff Telle Molineux, Counsel Telle's Distinguishes, and Hints That He's Given to Springing Motions on the Court—Argument to Be Had on the Motion To-day.

Bartow S. Weeks, counsel for Roland B. Molineux, argued before Recorder Goff yesterday morning in behalf of his client's motion that many remarks of counsel excited from the case on appeal, be restored, and that 125 amendments to the record of the case on appeal suggested by Weeks & Battle and excluded, be allowed. Mr. Weeks said that he didn't suppose that Recorder Goff had changed his mind about these matters and that the motion was made only to protect Molineux's rights.

The Recorder called Mr. Weeks' attention to the fact that another motion had been made by Weeks & Battle on the last day of the July term when Recorder Goff had three months' vacation in prospect and that now at the end of another term, when the Recorder is to have another month of vacation, the whole proceeding is being brought forward with this new motion. "It is a strange coincidence," said Recorder Goff.

"The District Attorney did not send the papers back until July 25 on the former occasion," said Mr. Weeks, "and we made our motion at that time. If we waited longer for this motion the final argument of Appeals until next fall."

"The defense will have time enough to make the motion," said Recorder Goff. "You are very distinguished," said the Recorder.

"I never am," responded Mr. Weeks. "I merely want to leave duty, but I don't expect to leave duty until I am made a Justice of the Peace."

"What right have you to assume so much?" exclaimed the Recorder, quickly. "The Court will not allow you to assume so much."

"I am not assuming anything," said Mr. Weeks. "I am merely stating the facts of the case."

"The Court will not allow you to assume so much," said the Recorder. "The Court will not allow you to assume so much."

"The Court will not allow you to assume so much," said the Recorder. "The Court will not allow you to assume so much."

"The Court will not allow you to assume so much," said the Recorder. "The Court will not allow you to assume so much."

"The Court will not allow you to assume so much," said the Recorder. "The Court will not allow you to assume so much."

"The Court will not allow you to assume so much," said the Recorder. "The Court will not allow you to assume so much."

"The Court will not allow you to assume so much," said the Recorder. "The Court will not allow you to assume so much."

"The Court will not allow you to assume so much," said the Recorder. "The Court will not allow you to assume so much."

"The Court will not allow you to assume so much," said the Recorder. "The Court will not allow you to assume so much."

"The Court will not allow you to assume so much," said the Recorder. "The Court will not allow you to assume so much."

"The Court will not allow you to assume so much," said the Recorder. "The Court will not allow you to assume so much."

"The Court will not allow you to assume so much," said the Recorder. "The Court will not allow you to assume so much."

"The Court will not allow you to assume so much," said the Recorder. "The Court will not allow you to assume so much."

"The Court will not allow you to assume so much," said the Recorder. "The Court will not allow you to assume so much."

"The Court will not allow you to assume so much," said the Recorder. "The Court will not allow you to assume so much."

"The Court will not allow you to assume so much," said the Recorder. "The Court will not allow you to assume so much."

"The Court will not allow you to assume so much," said the Recorder. "The Court will not allow you to assume so much."

"The Court will not allow you to assume so much," said the Recorder. "The Court will not allow you to assume so much."

"The Court will not allow you to assume so much," said the Recorder. "The Court will not allow you to assume so much."

"The Court will not allow you to assume so much," said the Recorder. "The Court will not allow you to assume so much."

"The Court will not allow you to assume so much," said the Recorder. "The Court will not allow you to assume so much."

"The Court will not allow you to assume so much," said the Recorder. "The Court will not allow you to assume so much."

GOV. BECKHAM PARDONS GAMBLERS.

Released at Once a Man Sentenced to Two Years—Free Another Without Trial.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Feb. 27.—The sporting fraternity is in great glee and the law and order people are incensed to an unusual degree over the pardon granted by Governor Beckham to a number of gamblers here. Yesterday Alvey, the proprietor of nearly all the big faro and crap games in the city, was convicted on the testimony of two of his employees, who turned State's evidence and secured immunity. He was sentenced to two years imprisonment and fined $500.

An hour later his attorneys were on their way to Frankfort with affidavits from the two employees saying that immunity had been promised to them on condition of turning State's evidence against Alvey and Paddy Miles, and that the pledge was made them by a representative of Judge Barker, the trial judge.

Early this morning Gov. Beckham granted a pardon, not only to Alvey, but also to Miles, who had not been tried and who is one of the most notorious gamblers in the city. In pardoning the pardon he declared that a conspiracy had been formed to convict Alvey and Miles and that the pardon was granted to them.

The unexpected turn caused a howl from the anti-gambling press, the Post and Dispatch, whose reporters acted as detectives and were instrumental in securing convictions. The Courier-Journal and Times, both Democratic, uphold Beckham.

The pardon was granted to Alvey and Miles, who had not been tried and who is one of the most notorious gamblers in the city. In pardoning the pardon he declared that a conspiracy had been formed to convict Alvey and Miles and that the pardon was granted to them.

The unexpected turn caused a howl from the anti-gambling press, the Post and Dispatch, whose reporters acted as detectives and were instrumental in securing convictions. The Courier-Journal and Times, both Democratic, uphold Beckham.

The pardon was granted to Alvey and Miles, who had not been tried and who is one of the most notorious gamblers in the city. In pardoning the pardon he declared that a conspiracy had been formed to convict Alvey and Miles and that the pardon was granted to them.

The unexpected turn caused a howl from the anti-gambling press, the Post and Dispatch, whose reporters acted as detectives and were instrumental in securing convictions. The Courier-Journal and Times, both Democratic, uphold Beckham.

The pardon was granted to Alvey and Miles, who had not been tried and who is one of the most notorious gamblers in the city. In pardoning the pardon he declared that a conspiracy had been formed to convict Alvey and Miles and that the pardon was granted to them.

The unexpected turn caused a howl from the anti-gambling press, the Post and Dispatch, whose reporters acted as detectives and were instrumental in securing convictions. The Courier-Journal and Times, both Democratic, uphold Beckham.

The pardon was granted to Alvey and Miles, who had not been tried and who is one of the most notorious gamblers in the city. In pardoning the pardon he declared that a conspiracy had been formed to convict Alvey and Miles and that the pardon was granted to them.

The unexpected turn caused a howl from the anti-gambling press, the Post and Dispatch, whose reporters acted as detectives and were instrumental in securing convictions. The Courier-Journal and Times, both Democratic, uphold Beckham.

The pardon was granted to Alvey and Miles, who had not been tried and who is one of the most notorious gamblers in the city. In pardoning the pardon he declared that a conspiracy had been formed to convict Alvey and Miles and that the pardon was granted to them.

The unexpected turn caused a howl from the anti-gambling press, the Post and Dispatch, whose reporters acted as detectives and were instrumental in securing convictions. The Courier-Journal and Times, both Democratic, uphold Beckham.

The pardon was granted to Alvey and Miles, who had not been tried and who is one of the most notorious gamblers in the city. In pardoning the pardon he declared that a conspiracy had been formed to convict Alvey and Miles and that the pardon was granted to them.

The unexpected turn caused a howl from the anti-gambling press, the Post and Dispatch, whose reporters acted as detectives and were instrumental in securing convictions. The Courier-Journal and Times, both Democratic, uphold Beckham.

The pardon was granted to Alvey and Miles, who had not been tried and who is one of the most notorious gamblers in the city. In pardoning the pardon he declared that a conspiracy had been formed to convict Alvey and Miles and that the pardon was granted to them.

The unexpected turn caused a howl from the anti-gambling press, the Post and Dispatch, whose reporters acted as detectives and were instrumental in securing convictions. The Courier-Journal and Times, both Democratic, uphold Beckham.

The pardon was granted to Alvey and Miles, who had not been tried and who is one of the most notorious gamblers in the city. In pardoning the pardon he declared that a conspiracy had been formed to convict Alvey and Miles and that the pardon was granted to them.

The unexpected turn caused a howl from the anti-gambling press, the Post and Dispatch, whose reporters acted as detectives and were instrumental in securing convictions. The Courier-Journal and Times, both Democratic, uphold Beckham.

The pardon was granted to Alvey and Miles, who had not been tried and who is one of the most notorious gamblers in the city. In pardoning the pardon he declared that a conspiracy had been formed to convict Alvey and Miles and that the pardon was granted to them.

The unexpected turn caused a howl from the anti-gambling press, the Post and Dispatch, whose reporters acted as detectives and were instrumental in securing convictions. The Courier-Journal and Times, both Democratic, uphold Beckham.

The pardon was granted to Alvey and Miles, who had not been tried and who is one of the most notorious gamblers in the city. In pardoning the pardon he declared that a conspiracy had been formed to convict Alvey and Miles and that the pardon was granted to them.

The unexpected turn caused a howl from the anti-gambling press, the Post and Dispatch, whose reporters acted as detectives and were instrumental in securing convictions. The Courier-Journal and Times, both Democratic, uphold Beckham.

The pardon was granted to Alvey and Miles, who had not been tried and who is one of the most notorious gamblers in the city. In pardoning the pardon he declared that a conspiracy had been formed to convict Alvey and Miles and that the pardon was granted to them.

The unexpected turn caused a howl from the anti-gambling press, the Post and Dispatch, whose reporters acted as detectives and were instrumental in securing convictions. The Courier-Journal and Times, both Democratic, uphold Beckham.

The pardon was granted to Alvey and Miles, who had not been tried and who is one of the most notorious gamblers in the city. In pardoning the pardon he declared that a conspiracy had been formed to convict Alvey and Miles and that the pardon was granted to them.

The unexpected turn caused a howl from the anti-gambling press, the Post and Dispatch, whose reporters acted as detectives and were instrumental in securing convictions. The Courier-Journal and Times, both Democratic, uphold Beckham.

The pardon was granted to Alvey and Miles, who had not been tried and who is one of the most notorious gamblers in the city. In pardoning the pardon he declared that a conspiracy had been formed to convict Alvey and Miles and that the pardon was granted to them.

PROFIT IN STEEL SHARES.

SMART TRADERS SELL U. S. SHORT AND MAKE MONEY.

Cover by Buying the Cheaper Old Shares for Exchange—The Process Brings Profits To Traders—Underwriting Syndicate Forming.

Trading in the curb market on Broad street yesterday in the stocks of the United States Steel Corporation "deliverable when issued" was very large. The advantages presented for "arbitraging" were such as to swell the dealings heavily. The smart Wall Street trader had discovered that he could sell United States Steel shares on the curb to go short of the stock and buy against such sales the stock of certain of the constituent companies which are intended in the big deal. This stock being of course, exchangeable into United States Steel stock the trader was protected against his short sale, and at the same time he reaped a sure profit owing to the difference between the yield from the sale of the United States Steel stock and the market cost of the stock of the constituent companies.

The sure profit thus obtainable was figured at as much as 6 or 8 points at one time. The discovery, however, resulted in rapidly lessening the divergence between the "outside" and "inside" stocks and therefore the amount of profit obtainable.

Under the selling pressure the United States common stock, which had opened at 40, declined to 37, rallying to 38 at the close, while United States preferred, which had sold as high as 87 early in the day, broke to 82 and closed at 82.

The New York Stock Exchange the buying of Federal steel preferred and American Steel, preferred, against arbitrage transactions was particularly heavy. The quantity of Federal steel preferred, which had opened at 40, declined to 37, rallying to 38 at the close, while United States preferred, which had sold as high as 87 early in the day, broke to 82 and closed at 82.

The New York Stock Exchange the buying of Federal steel preferred and American Steel, preferred, against arbitrage transactions was particularly heavy. The quantity of Federal steel preferred, which had opened at 40, declined to 37, rallying to 38 at the close, while United States preferred, which had sold as high as 87 early in the day, broke to 82 and closed at 82.

The New York Stock Exchange the buying of Federal steel preferred and American Steel, preferred, against arbitrage transactions was particularly heavy. The quantity of Federal steel preferred, which had opened at 40, declined to 37, rallying to 38 at the close, while United States preferred, which had sold as high as 87 early in the day, broke to 82 and closed at 82.

The New York Stock Exchange the buying of Federal steel preferred and American Steel, preferred, against arbitrage transactions was particularly heavy. The quantity of Federal steel preferred, which had opened at 40, declined to 37, rallying to 38 at the close, while United States preferred, which had sold as high as 87 early in the day, broke to 82 and closed at 82.

The New York Stock Exchange the buying of Federal steel preferred and American Steel, preferred, against arbitrage transactions was particularly heavy. The quantity of Federal steel preferred, which had opened at 40, declined to 37, rallying to 38 at the close, while United States preferred, which had sold as high as 87 early in the day, broke to 82 and closed at 82.

The New York Stock Exchange the buying of Federal steel preferred and American Steel, preferred, against arbitrage transactions was particularly heavy. The quantity of Federal steel preferred, which had opened at 40, declined to 37, rallying to 38 at the close, while United States preferred, which had sold as high as 87 early in the day, broke to 82 and closed at 82.

The New York Stock Exchange the buying of Federal steel preferred and American Steel, preferred, against arbitrage transactions was particularly heavy. The quantity of Federal steel preferred, which had opened at 40, declined to 37, rallying to 38 at the close, while United States preferred, which had sold as high as 87 early in the day, broke to 82 and closed at 82.

The New York Stock Exchange the buying of Federal steel preferred and American Steel, preferred, against arbitrage transactions was particularly heavy. The quantity of Federal steel preferred, which had opened at 40, declined to 37, rallying to 38 at the close, while United States preferred, which had sold as high as 87 early in the day, broke to 82 and closed at 82.

The New York Stock Exchange the buying of Federal steel preferred and American Steel, preferred, against arbitrage transactions was particularly heavy. The quantity of Federal steel preferred, which had opened at 40, declined to 37, rallying to 38 at the close, while United States preferred, which had sold as high as 87 early in the day, broke to 82 and closed at 82.

The New York Stock Exchange the buying of Federal steel preferred and American Steel, preferred, against arbitrage transactions was particularly heavy. The quantity of Federal steel preferred, which had opened at 40, declined to 37, rallying to 38 at the close, while United States preferred, which had sold as high as 87 early in the day, broke to 82 and closed at 82.

The New York Stock Exchange the buying of Federal steel preferred and American Steel, preferred, against arbitrage transactions was particularly heavy. The quantity of Federal steel preferred, which had opened at 40, declined to 37, rallying to 38 at the close, while United States preferred, which had sold as high as 87 early in the day, broke to 82 and closed at 82.

The New York Stock Exchange the buying of Federal steel preferred and American Steel, preferred, against arbitrage transactions was particularly heavy. The quantity of Federal steel preferred, which had opened at 40, declined to 37, rallying to 38 at the close, while United States preferred, which had sold as high as 87 early in the day, broke to 82 and closed at 82.

The New York Stock Exchange the buying of Federal steel preferred and American Steel, preferred, against arbitrage transactions was particularly heavy. The quantity of Federal steel preferred, which had opened at 40, declined to 37, rallying to 38 at the close, while United States preferred, which had sold as high as 87 early in the day, broke to 82 and closed at 82.

The New York Stock Exchange the buying of Federal steel preferred and American Steel, preferred, against arbitrage transactions was particularly heavy. The quantity of Federal steel preferred, which had opened at 40, declined to 37, rallying to 38 at the close, while United States preferred, which had sold as high as 87 early in the day, broke to 82 and closed at 82.

The New York Stock Exchange the buying of Federal steel preferred and American Steel, preferred, against arbitrage transactions was particularly heavy. The quantity of Federal steel preferred, which had opened at 40, declined to 37, rallying to 38 at the close, while United States preferred, which had sold as high as 87 early in the day, broke to 82 and closed at 82.

The New York Stock Exchange the buying of Federal steel preferred and American Steel, preferred, against arbitrage transactions was particularly heavy. The quantity of Federal steel preferred, which had opened at 40, declined to 37, rallying to 38 at the close, while United States preferred, which had sold as high as 87 early in the day, broke to 82 and closed at 82.

The New York Stock Exchange the buying of Federal steel preferred and American Steel, preferred, against arbitrage transactions was particularly heavy. The quantity of Federal steel preferred, which had opened at 40, declined to 37, rallying to 38 at the close, while United States preferred, which had sold as high as 87 early in the day, broke to 82 and closed at 82.

The New York Stock Exchange the buying of Federal steel preferred and American Steel, preferred, against arbitrage transactions was particularly heavy. The quantity of Federal steel preferred, which had opened at 40, declined to 37, rallying to 38 at the close, while United States preferred, which had sold as high as 87 early in the day, broke to 82 and closed at 82.

The New York Stock Exchange the buying of Federal steel preferred and American Steel, preferred, against arbitrage transactions was particularly heavy. The quantity of Federal steel preferred, which had opened at 40, declined to 37, rallying to 38 at the close, while United States preferred, which had sold as high as 87 early in the day, broke to 82 and closed at 82.

The New York Stock Exchange the buying of Federal steel preferred and American Steel, preferred, against arbitrage transactions was particularly heavy. The quantity of Federal steel preferred, which had opened at 40, declined to 37, rallying to 38 at the close, while United States preferred, which had sold as high as 87 early in the day, broke to 82 and closed at 82.

The New York Stock Exchange the buying of Federal steel preferred and American Steel, preferred, against arbitrage transactions was particularly heavy. The quantity of Federal steel preferred, which had opened at 40, declined to 37, rallying to 38 at the close, while United States preferred, which had sold as high as 87 early in the day, broke to 82 and closed at 82.

The New York Stock Exchange the buying of Federal steel preferred and American Steel, preferred, against arbitrage transactions was particularly heavy. The quantity of Federal steel preferred, which had opened at 40, declined to 37, rallying to 38 at the close, while United States preferred, which had sold as high as 87 early in the day, broke to 82 and closed at 82.

The New York Stock Exchange the buying of Federal steel preferred and American Steel, preferred, against arbitrage transactions was particularly heavy. The quantity of Federal steel preferred, which had opened at 40, declined to 37, rallying to 38 at the close, while United States preferred, which had sold as high as 87 early in the day, broke to 82 and closed at 82.